Car Shipping Insurance

- Insurance is must while shipping your car.
- Cargo and liability insurance is must for any car shipping company as you claim them if your car is being damaged during shipment.
- Check the insurance policy of the carrier company before going for a deal with them.
- Find the terms and conditions since some auto transport companies provide a very minimal insurance even less than the value of your vehicle.

Checklist For Proper Insurance

Below is a checklist to ensure that you receive proper Insurance

- Get everything in writing
- Check the insurance certificate of the auto transport company and make sure that it is up-to-date.
- Ensure that the auto insurance covers the vehicle during loading and unloading.
- Do not load any personal items in your car since they are not covered for any damage or theft in transit.
- When your car is delivered, thoroughly inspect it before signing the bill of lading.

Auto Insurance Tips

Before choosing a vehicle shipping company, do ask them certain questions like:

- Types of insurance policies
- Will the car damage be covered that occurred during transit?
- Are other parts of the car also covered?
- Will you be asked to pay a deductible?

Customer Centric Approach

- Amidst of a tough competition, the success of the auto transport industry is always related with the service provided to the customers.
- Customer always rely on the auto transporter who provides insurance and safety of their cars.
- Customers either provide primary or excess insurance policy.
- Since exotic cars require much care and attention, make sure that the insurance coverage includes the blue book value of the car.

Protection Offered in Car Insurance

- Car insurance provides protection to the car as well as to the customer who transported the vehicle.
- Similar to auto insurance, car insurance is also an other kind of insurance which is considered important for the car transport company who transport vehicle from one place to another.
- The main purpose of having the service of car insurance is that it indemnifies the loss against accidents.
